Dear Parents and Carers,

Following the news of the sad passing of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II yesterday evening, I wanted to send you a brief message to outline the school's immediate response to the news.

This morning, we acknowledged Queen Elizabeth's passing with the children during a short assembly for our Year 1 to Year 6 pupils. We recognised that this news may trigger memories of lost loved ones and feelings of sadness and grief.

Staff will be on hand to talk to pupils who need support and answer any questions they may have, whilst continuing with school life as usual. In times of grief, we are advised that school should remain a place of consistency and stability and there will come a time to reflect further on Queen Elizabeth's many achievements, as we did during her jubilee celebrations.

Thank you for your continued support.

Kind regards,

Laura Forchione
