Dear Parents and Carers,

I have been really impressed with how well the pupils of Class 5 have been engaging with our new core text, Sky Hawk. They really seem to be enjoying it and have produced some fantastic writing.

I am writing as I wanted to pre-warn you that towards the end of this week, we are reaching a rather sad part of our book, where one of the main characters passes away. We have taught this text for a number of years and the death will be dealt with sensitively with pupils given the opportunity to ask questions and speak to an adult if they need to.

If you have any further questions or feel we should be aware of something that may impact how they feel, please do not hesitate to contact me via the school office.

Kind Regards

Mrs Leslie
