A Pathway to Excellence

25th June 2025

Dear Parents & Carers,

Re: PAWS - 'Break the Rules Day' - Friday 27th June

Please find details below regarding the upcoming 'Break the Rules Day' which is taking place this Friday 27th June.

A copy of the attached letter was sent home with children last week, please tick off the rules your child is breaking and return the slip with the correct amount of 'fine' in an envelope on Friday 27th June. If your child has mislaid their letter, you are welcome to use the one attached or additional paper copies can be collected from the School Office.

Children are allowed to select as many rules to break as they wish, school uniform must be worn unless they are breaking a rule relating to their uniform.

The fine is 50p for 'each' rule broken.

Only the following rules can be broken:

- Wearing colourful socks
- Having crazy hair or wearing a wig/hat
- Wearing a temporary tattoo
- Bring a snack (small chocolate bar) for after lunch (no nuts)
- Wearing face paint
- Wearing nail varnish
- Wear a non-uniform top (eg football top - no crop tops)
- Wear non-uniform trousers
- Wear a non-uniform dress or skirt
- Wear sensible non-uniform shoes or trainers

Thank you for your continued support.

Kind regards,

PAWS
