English  This term, class 6 will explore the features and patterns of myths which links with our Ancient Greece history work. A significant amount of our English work will be focussing on our speaking, presenting and acting skills as we prepare for our Summer production of 'Bugsy Malone'.	Mathematics Lessons will provide consolidation on area that will support the transition to secondary school and we will continue with arithmetic questions. We will be looking at algebra and simplifying algebraic equations.
Music Rehearsing songs for the performance and leavers' assembly. 	PSHE 'Changing Me' This sequence of lessons looks at self and body image, puberty, babies: conception to birth, attraction and transition to secondary school. First Aid will also be taught this term.	MFL This half term will be a bit different, we will be exploring different languages. We will be looking at a new language each of the remaining weeks, from Nǐ hǎo to Ciao.
RE Class 6 will consider the question: Does belief in Akhirah (life after death) help Muslims lead good lives? (Islam)	How you can support your child at home: Help them to practise lines and song words. Encourage them to talk about moving on to secondary school: what are they looking forward to, what questions do they have and is there anything worrying them?
