

Mark My Work!

Inverted Commas

Below, I have written some spring-themed sentences including speech. Can you mark my work, checking if I have used inverted commas for speech correctly? If you think a sentence is incorrect, write it out correctly on the line below. If you think it is correct, add a tick.

1. In spring, the clocks will “go forward one hour,” said the boy.

2. “I can’t wait for the spring flowers to bloom in the garden!” exclaimed his mum.

3. Are the birds building a nest in our tree? “asked Judy.”

4. Watch out! yelled Dad. “Don’t stand on the daffodils.”

5. “The rain is going to stop soon,” said Grandma.

6. Charlie “shouted, I am going to look at the tadpoles in the pond.”

7. “Have you seen the lambs running around in the field? asked Timmy.”

8. “Can you see the buds growing on the bush? asked” Zainab.

Mark My Work! Inverted Commas Answers

1. In spring, the clocks will “go forward one hour,” said the boy.

“In spring, the clocks will go forward one hour,” said the boy.

2. “I can’t wait for the spring flowers to bloom in the garden!” exclaimed his mum. ✓

3. Are the birds building a nest in our tree? “asked Judy.”

“Are the birds building a nest in our tree?” asked Judy.

4. Watch out! yelled Dad. “Don’t stand on the daffodils.”

“Watch out!” yelled Dad. “Don’t stand on the daffodils.”

5. “The rain is going to stop soon,” said Grandma. ✓

6. Charlie “shouted, I am going to look at the tadpoles in the pond.”

Charlie shouted, “ I am going to look at the tadpoles in the pond.”

7. “Have you seen the lambs running around in the field? asked Timmy.”

“Have you seen the lambs running around in the field?” asked Timmy.

8. “Can you see the buds growing on the bush? asked” Zainab.

“Can you see the buds growing on the bush?” asked Zainab.